Inspiring a love of reading in every child

Oxford Reading Tree has taught over 30 million children how to read and to love to read.

- New titles expand this large collection for young readers, providing even more choice for different writing styles, genres and artwork preferences at every level
- Includes a systematic synthetic phonics teaching programme which gives children a secure first step on their reading journey
- Includes the most popular character series ever – Biff, Chip and Kipper – and lots more besides, including inFact non-fiction and Story Sparks variety fiction

“Our pupils really enjoy Oxford Reading Tree. Children are highly motivated to develop their reading – the use of the characters captures their interest, encouraging them to read with a greater fluency and expression.”

Jacqueline Sharrock, Literacy Coordinator (St Bedes School)

Oxford Primary Reading Assessment

All Oxford Reading Tree titles are expertly levelled using Oxford Levels, so you can use the Oxford Reading Criterion Scale to assess every child, identify their next steps and ensure progress.

Topic-linked fiction and non-fiction to support your wider curriculum

This unique series of 60 decodable reading books, linked to the wider curriculum, will take your children on a journey of discovery as they read across both fiction and non-fiction.

Each story is linked to a companion non-fiction title to encourage reading between the two text types

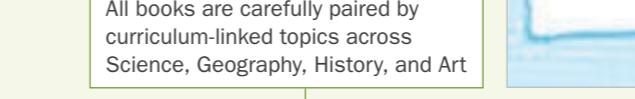

Oxford Level 3, Fiction,
Home for a Night

Oxford Level 3, Non-fiction, The Right Home

All books are carefully paired by curriculum-linked topics across Science, Geography, History, and Art.
